

Contents

About the Companion Website, Other Search Options	ix
---	----

Chapter 1

First Considerations

1.1 What Is “UDAP”?	1
1.2 Nature and Strengths of UDAP Statutes	1
1.3 About This Treatise	2
1.3.1 Scope of This Treatise	2
1.3.2 Companion Website	3
1.3.3 Web-Based Text Searching	3
1.3.4 Clearinghouse Citations	3
1.4 General Preparation for UDAP Clients	3
1.5 Determining Whether There Is a UDAP Approach to the Client’s Problem	5
1.5.1 Transactions Amenable to a UDAP Approach	5
1.5.2 Look at All Aspects of a Transaction	6
1.5.3 Apply UDAP Standards Expansively	6
1.6 Alternatives to a UDAP Action	7
1.7 Determining Whether a UDAP Claim Should Be Pursued	7

Chapter 2

UDAP Scope

2.1 General Principles	9
2.1.1 Determining a UDAP Statute’s Scope	9
2.1.2 Burden of Proof	10
2.1.3 Liberal Construction of UDAP Scope Sections	10
2.1.4 Interpretations of “Trade or Commerce”	12
2.1.5 Interpretations of “Goods”	13
2.1.6 Interpretations of “Merchandise”	14
2.1.7 Interpretations of “Services”	15
2.1.8 Interpretations of “Personal, Family, or Household Use”	16
2.1.8.1 General	16
2.1.8.2 Is the Test Objective or Subjective?	17
2.1.8.3 Mixed Transactions	17
2.1.8.4 Interpretations Unique to Particular States	18
2.1.8.5 Listing of Consumer Transactions	18
2.1.8.6 Transactions Not Found to Be for Consumer Purposes	19
2.1.8.7 Texas Case Law Defining “Consumer Transaction”: “Consumer” Not Limited to “Personal, Family or Household Purposes”	20
2.1.9 UDAP Liability Where Party Outside UDAP Statute’s Scope	22
2.2 Exempted Transactions	22
2.2.1 Credit	22
2.2.1.1 General	22
2.2.1.2 Does a Credit Transaction Involve “Goods or Services”?	22

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

2.2.1.3	Services in Connection with a Loan or Banking Are “Goods or Services”	25
2.2.1.4	Credit Is in “Trade or Commerce” and Meets Other Definitions. . .	25
2.2.1.5	Specific Statutory Exemptions	26
2.2.1.6	Does Other Legislation Occupy the Field of Credit Regulation? . . .	27
2.2.1.6.1	FTC Act.	27
2.2.1.6.2	Federal and state banking laws.	27
2.2.1.6.3	State Law Exemptions for matters regulated by or in compliance with Truth in Lending Act or other federal statutes.	28
2.2.1.7	Derivative Liability Under FTC Holder Rule Regardless of UDAP Statute’s Coverage.	30
2.2.1.8	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Credit Transactions and Creditors	30
2.2.2	Debt Collection	38
2.2.2.1	Factors Determining Coverage.	38
2.2.2.2	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Debt Collection.	40
2.2.3	Post-Sale Activities.	46
2.2.4	Where There Is No “Purchase”	47
2.2.4.1	Where Transaction Involves No “Purchase”	47
2.2.4.2	Where Purchase Is Not from UDAP Defendant	51
2.2.4.3	Where Goods or Services Are Provided Without Charge	52
2.2.4.4	Goods or Services Not Requested by the Consumer	53
2.2.4.5	Where Someone Other Than Consumer Pays	53
2.2.4.6	Mistaken Identity and Identity Theft.	54
2.2.4.7	Charitable Solicitations and Sweepstakes.	54
2.2.4.8	Where Plaintiff Is the Seller Rather Than the Buyer	54
2.2.5	Real Property and Manufactured Homes	55
2.2.5.1	Are Real Estate Sales Covered?	55
2.2.5.1.1	Real estate sales involve “trade or commerce,” “property,” and “merchandise”	55
2.2.5.1.2	Does real estate sale involve “goods or services”?	56
2.2.5.1.3	The isolated sale of real estate by owner	58
2.2.5.1.4	Special consideration for manufactured home sales	59
2.2.5.2	Services, Personalty Related to Real Estate Are Covered.	59
2.2.6	Residential Leases; Manufactured Home Parks	60
2.2.6.1	General Coverage	60
2.2.6.2	Does Other State Regulation of Landlord-Tenant Relations Displace UDAP Coverage?	62
2.2.6.3	UDAP Coverage Where Building Is Owner Occupied.	62
2.2.7	Migrant Farmworker Camps.	63
2.2.8	Membership Campgrounds and Timeshares	63
2.2.9	Pyramid Sales, Franchises, Securities, Business Opportunities	63
2.2.9.1	Pyramid Sales.	63
2.2.9.2	Franchises and Other Investments	63
2.2.9.3	Securities Transactions	64
2.2.9.4	Work-at-Home Schemes and Other Personal Business Opportunities	67
2.2.10	Employer-Employee and Internal Business Disputes.	68
2.2.11	Personal Injury Suits	71
2.2.12	Out-of-State Transactions.	72
2.2.13	The Texas Exemption for Large Transactions	75
2.3	Exempted Sellers	75
2.3.1	Insurance Companies	75
2.3.1.1	Does the UDAP Statute Apply to Insurance Practices?	75

Contents

2.3.1.2	Statutory Exemptions for Insurance Companies	76
2.3.1.3	State Insurance Code Displacement of UDAP Applicability	78
2.3.1.4	The Filed Rate Doctrine and Primary Jurisdiction	80
2.3.1.5	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Insurance Transactions	81
2.3.2	Utilities	85
2.3.2.1	Issues in UDAP Coverage of Utilities	85
2.3.2.2	State-by-State Survey of Coverage of Utilities	86
2.3.3	Regulated Industries	91
2.3.3.1	Determining Whether Other State Regulation Bars a UDAP Action	91
2.3.3.2	UDAP Statutes Exempting Specific Regulated Entities or All “Regulated Practices”	92
2.3.3.3	UDAP Statutes Exempting “Practices Permitted by Law”	94
2.3.3.3.1	Mainstream precedent	94
2.3.3.3.2	Minority of courts confuse regulated with permitted	96
2.3.3.4	Are Permitted Practices Exempt Even Without an Explicit Statutory Exclusion?	99
2.3.3.5	State Law Displacement of UDAP Coverage	100
2.3.3.5.1	Introduction	100
2.3.3.5.2	Impact of explicit statutory language on statute’s cumulative or exclusive effect	100
2.3.3.5.3	Jurisdictions that reject displacement	102
2.3.3.5.4	Other jurisdictions adopt a balancing approach	102
2.3.3.5.5	Whichever approach adopted, most UDAP claims are not displaced by other state regulation	104
2.3.3.6	Exhaustion of Administrative Remedies	105
2.3.3.6.1	Must consumer exhaust administrative remedies?	105
2.3.3.6.2	The doctrine of primary jurisdiction	105
2.3.4	Nonmerchant Sellers and Isolated Occurrences	107
2.3.5	Nonprofit Organizations and Schools	108
2.3.5.1	Nonprofit Organizations	108
2.3.5.2	Schools	110
2.3.6	Government and Quasi-Government Agencies As Sellers	110
2.3.7	Printers and the Media	112
2.3.8	Wholesalers and Other Indirect Parties	113
2.3.9	Lawyers	116
2.3.10	Medical Professionals	119
2.3.11	Other Professionals	122
2.4	Persons Excluded from UDAP Protections	122
2.4.1	Recipients of Insurance Payments; Third-Party Beneficiaries; Donees; Assignees	122
2.4.1.1	Introduction	122
2.4.1.2	Recipients of Insurance Payments	123
2.4.1.3	Donees	124
2.4.1.4	Third-Party Beneficiaries	124
2.4.1.5	Assignees of Consumers’ Claims	124
2.4.1.6	Other Third Parties	125
2.4.2	Where Consumer Is Now Deceased	126
2.4.3	Loan Guarantors	126
2.4.4	Out-of-State Residents	126
2.4.5	Merchants; Corporations; Government Entities	127
2.4.5.1	Seller’s Attempt to Treat Consumer As a Commercial Entity	127
2.4.5.2	Can Businesses Bring UDAP Actions?	128
2.4.5.3	Can Government Entities Bring UDAP Claims?	136
2.4.6	Investigators	137

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

2.5 Conflict with the FTC Act and Other Federal Law 137

2.5.1 General Principles of Federal Preemption 137

2.5.2 The FTC Act 139

2.5.3 Federal Banking and Credit Disclosure Laws 140

2.5.3.1 Federal Banking Laws Vary in the Scope of Preemption 140

2.5.3.2 National Bank Act 140

2.5.3.3 OTS Regulation of Savings and Loan Associations 142

2.5.3.4 Alternative Mortgage Transactions Parity Act 146

2.5.3.5 Federal Regulation of State-Chartered FDIC-Insured Banks 146

2.5.3.6 Federal Credit Unions 146

2.5.3.7 Real Estate Settlement Procedures Act 147

2.5.3.8 Truth in Lending Act 147

2.5.4 Federal Vehicle, Boat, and Manufactured Home Standards 148

2.5.5 Federal Transportation and Shipping Laws 148

2.5.6 Federal Communications Laws 150

2.5.7 Federal Securities and Commerce Laws 151

2.5.8 Federal Health Care Laws 153

2.5.9 ERISA 154

2.5.10 Federal Tobacco Regulation 157

2.5.11 Bankruptcy Code 157

2.5.12 Other Federal Statutes 158

Chapter 3

Demonstrating That a Practice Is a UDAP Violation

3.1 Getting Started 161

3.1.1 How to Use This Treatise to Prove a Violation 161

3.1.2 Expansive, Liberal Application of UDAP Statutes 161

3.2 Per Se Violations 164

3.2.1 Pleading Per Se Violations 164

3.2.2 Per Se Violations Enumerated in the UDAP Statute 164

3.2.2.1 Most UDAP Statutes Prohibit Specific Enumerated Practices 164

3.2.2.2 Practices Outside Specific UDAP Prohibitions Are Still UDAP
Violations 165

3.2.3 Per Se Violations of State UDAP Regulations 165

3.2.4 Finding of Common Law Fraud Necessitates Finding a UDAP Violation. 166

3.2.5 UDTPA Violations As Per Se UDAP Violations 166

3.2.6 Violation of FTC Act, Other Laws Where the Statute Itself States a Violation Is Unfair or Deceptive 167

3.2.7 Violations of Other State, Federal Laws as Per Se UDAP Violations 167

3.2.7.1 Importance of Finding Violations of Other Laws Per Se UDAP
Violations 167

3.2.7.2 UDAP Scope Issues May Limit Applicability of Per Se Approach. 168

3.2.7.3 Precedent Finding Violations of Other Laws to Be Per Se UDAP
Violations 168

3.2.7.3.1 California, the District of Columbia, and Nevada UDAP statutes explicitly adopt and Texas UDAP statute explicitly rejects per se approach 168

3.2.7.3.2 Illinois UDAP statute has unique treatment for violation of credit statutes. 169

3.2.7.3.3 State UDAP regulations finding statutory violations to be per se UDAP violations 169

3.2.7.3.4 Courts may determine that statutory violations are per se UDAP violations 170

3.2.7.3.5 Courts that reject the per se approach 171

Contents

3.2.7.3.6	Examples of statutory violations found to be per se UDAP violations	172
3.2.7.4	Arguing That a Statutory Violation Is a Per Se UDAP Violation . .	175
3.2.7.4.1	Violation of another statute as an unfair practice	175
3.2.7.4.2	Violation of another statute as deceptive practice.	176
3.3	Proving UDAP Claims Without Per Se Violations	177
3.3.1	Introduction	177
3.3.2	Develop the Facts	177
3.3.3	Practice-Specific Precedent.	177
3.3.4	Point Out Breadth and Flexibility of General UDAP Standards	177
3.4	Sources of UDAP Precedent and Guidelines	178
3.4.1	The Statute	178
3.4.2	Legislative History; Model Statutes	179
3.4.2.1	General	179
3.4.2.2	Unfair Trade Practices and Consumer Protection Law	179
3.4.2.3	Uniform Consumer Sales Practices Act	180
3.4.2.4	Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act.	180
3.4.2.5	Consumer Fraud Acts and Other Models	180
3.4.3	State UDAP Case Law	180
3.4.3.1	Keeping Up with In-State UDAP Cases	180
3.4.3.2	Other States' UDAP Case Law	181
3.4.4	State UDAP Regulations	181
3.4.4.1	Authority and Procedure to Enact Regulations	181
3.4.4.2	Precedential Effect of UDAP Regulations	182
3.4.5	FTC Cases, Other Guidelines	183
3.4.5.1	FTC Cases, Other Guidelines Are Important Sources of UDAP Precedent	183
3.4.5.2	Types of FTC Cases.	184
3.4.5.3	Precedential Value of FTC Consent Agreements	185
3.4.5.4	Comparing the FTC Act and the State UDAP Statutes.	185
3.4.5.5	Researching FTC Case Law	186
3.4.5.6	FTC Trade Regulation Rules, Guides, and Other Statements.	187

Chapter 4

The Meaning of Deception, Unfairness, and Unconscionability

4.1	Introduction	189
4.2	Deception, Statutory Fraud	189
4.2.1	Per Se Deception	189
4.2.2	Relationship of Deception to Unfairness, Unconscionability	190
4.2.3	Comparison of Deception with Fraud, Misleading Practices.	190
4.2.3.1	Comparison with Common Law Fraud	190
4.2.3.2	Statutory Fraud; Misleading Practices	191
4.2.4	Intent Unnecessary	193
4.2.4.1	Intent Generally Not Required	193
4.2.4.2	Where Statute Explicitly Requires Proof of Intent.	195
4.2.5	Knowledge Unnecessary	196
4.2.5.1	Knowledge Generally Not Required	196
4.2.5.2	Where Proof of Seller's Knowledge Is Required	197
4.2.6	Despite Good Faith Efforts.	199
4.2.7	Despite Cessation of Practice	199
4.2.8	Despite Industrywide Practice.	200
4.2.9	Actual Deception Unnecessary; Likelihood or Capacity for Deception Sufficient.	201
4.2.10	Puffing As a Defense.	204
4.2.11	Vulnerable Consumers Specially Considered	205

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

4.2.11.1	The FTC Standard	205
4.2.11.2	State UDAP Case Law	206
4.2.12	Materiality May Be Presumed and Reliance Is Unnecessary	207
4.2.12.1	Introduction.	207
4.2.12.2	The FTC Standard	207
4.2.12.3	State UDAP Case Law	208
4.2.12.3.1	Proof of reliance generally not required	208
4.2.12.3.2	Small minority require reliance	211
4.2.12.3.3	No reliance required in nondisclosure or mis-disclosure cases	213
4.2.12.3.4	No reliance required in cases seeking injunctive relief	213
4.2.12.3.5	Where reliance required, it need not be reasonable reliance	213
4.2.12.3.6	Presumption of reliance where misrepresentations are material.	214
4.2.12.4	Requirement That Representation Be Material	214
4.2.12.5	Relationship of Reliance to Causation	215
4.2.13	Ambiguous but Literally True Statements, Partial Truths, and Pictures Can Be Deceptive	217
4.2.14	Failure to Disclose	219
4.2.14.1	Overview	219
4.2.14.2	The FTC Standard	220
4.2.14.3	State UDAP Precedent	221
4.2.14.3.1	General standards	221
4.2.14.3.2	State regulations.	222
4.2.14.3.3	Special duty to disclose for fiduciaries	223
4.2.14.3.4	Must the nondisclosure be knowing?	223
4.2.14.3.5	Must the seller intend that others rely on the omission?	225
4.2.14.3.6	Must the seller have an independent duty of disclosure?.	225
4.2.14.3.7	Must the consumer investigate?	226
4.2.14.3.8	Specific nondisclosure holdings.	226
4.2.14.3.9	Disclosures in on-line transactions.	230
4.2.14.3.10	Electronic disclosures	231
4.2.15	Subsequent Clarification Does Not Prevent Deception.	232
4.2.15.1	Subsequent Disclosures Cannot Correct Earlier Deceptive Claims	232
4.2.15.2	Subsequent Consumer Conduct or Other Occurrence Cannot Cure Deception	233
4.2.15.3	The Georgia Exception	233
4.2.16	Immediate Customer's Deception Unnecessary	234
4.2.17	Deceptive Statements Need Not Be Advertised to the Public	234
4.2.18	Money-Back Guarantee Does Not Sanitize Fraud.	235
4.2.19	Contract Defenses Do Not Apply to UDAP Cases	236
4.2.19.1	Deception Is Not Based on Breach of Contract.	236
4.2.19.2	Parol Evidence Rule	236
4.2.19.3	Privity of Contract	237
4.2.19.4	Disclaimers, Merger Clauses, Limitations on Liability or Remedies, and Other Contract Clauses	240
4.2.19.5	Voluntary Payment Doctrine	243
4.2.19.6	Post-Transaction Waivers.	245
4.2.19.7	Other Contract Defenses	245
4.2.20	Tort Defenses Do Not Apply to Deception Claim.	246
4.2.20.1	Contributory Negligence or Lack of Care by the Consumer	246

Contents

4.2.20.2 Economic Loss Rule Generally Does Not Apply to UDAP Claims 247

4.2.20.3 Unclean Hands 248

4.2.20.4 Other Tort Defenses 248

4.3 Unfairness 249

4.3.1 General 249

4.3.2 The Current FTC Unfairness Standard 249

4.3.2.1 Standard Enacted by Congress in 1994 249

4.3.2.2 Substantial Consumer Injury 250

4.3.2.3 Injury That Consumer Cannot Avoid. 251

4.3.2.4 Injury Not Outweighed by the Benefits to Consumers or Competition 252

4.3.2.5 Relation to Public Policy 252

4.3.3 Unfairness Standards under State UDAP Statutes. 253

4.3.3.1 Unfairness Broader Than Deception 253

4.3.3.2 Precedential Effect of Congress' 1994 Definition of Unfairness in Interpreting State UDAP Statutes 254

4.3.3.3 The "S&H" Standard. 254

4.3.3.3.1 Description of the "S&H" standard 254

4.3.3.3.2 Differences between the "S&H" and the current FTC standard 255

4.3.3.4 State UDAP Use of "S&H" Unfairness Definition in Lieu of the Current FTC Definition. 255

4.3.3.5 Alternative State Definitions 258

4.3.4 Application of Unfairness to Adhesion Contracts. 259

4.3.4.1 FTC Credit Practices Rule. 259

4.3.4.2 Other Precedent. 260

4.3.5 Systematic Breach of Contract As Unfair 260

4.3.6 Coercive High-Pressure Sales and Collection Tactics 261

4.3.7 Taking Advantage of Disparate Knowledge. 262

4.3.8 Taking Advantage of a Vulnerable Group. 262

4.3.9 Illegal Conduct. 263

4.3.10 Misuse of Special Status 264

4.3.11 Taking Advantage of an Emergency Situation 264

4.3.12 Unconscionable Practices As Unfair Practices 265

4.4 Unconscionability 266

4.4.1 Importance of Unconscionability Standard 266

4.4.2 Definitions of Unconscionability in UDAP Statutes and Regulations. 266

4.4.3 UDAP Case Law Defining Unconscionability 267

4.4.4 Taking Advantage of Vulnerable Consumers 268

4.4.5 Price Unconscionability 269

4.4.6 Unconscionable Performance Practices. 270

4.4.7 Unconscionable Collection and Enforcement Practices 270

4.4.8 Other UDAP Unconscionability Decisions 271

4.4.9 Other Sources of Unconscionability Precedent. 271

4.4.9.1 General 271

4.4.9.2 Specific UCC, UCCC, and Common Law Unconscionability Findings 273

Chapter 5

General Sales and Performance Practices

5.1 Introduction 275

5.2 Unsubstantiated Claims 275

5.2.1 General 275

5.2.2 FTC Standards 275

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

5.2.3	State UDAP Precedent	276
5.3	Deceptive Pricing Inducements	277
5.3.1	Bait and Switch	277
5.3.2	Unavailability of Advertised Items	279
5.3.3	Deceptive Pricing and Bargain Sales	280
5.3.3.1	Deceptive Pricing in Comparison to a Reference Price	280
5.3.3.2	Deceptive Rebate Offers	282
5.3.3.3	Other Deceptive Pricing Techniques	282
5.3.4	Use of the Word “Free”	283
5.3.5	Low Balling; Charging Higher Prices Than Agreed Upon	284
5.3.6	Consumer Specially Selected or Contest Winner	285
5.3.7	Conditions or Limitations on Offers	285
5.4	General Misrepresentations Regarding Product and Seller	286
5.4.1	Product Characteristics, Uses and Benefits	286
5.4.2	Product Uniqueness	287
5.4.3	Product Quality, Composition, Model and Identity	287
5.4.4	Product Safety	288
5.4.5	Product Quantity and Size; Packaging	289
5.4.6	Product’s Method of Manufacture	289
5.4.7	Product’s Geographic Origin	289
5.4.8	Seller’s and Product’s Approval, Affiliation and Endorsement	290
5.4.8.1	Approval or Affiliation	290
5.4.8.2	Unlicensed or Unregistered Sellers	291
5.4.8.3	Endorsements and Testimonials	292
5.4.9	Manufacturer’s and Seller’s Status; Fictitious Names	293
5.4.10	Passing Off; Trademarks	294
5.4.11	Disparaging Competitors	294
5.5	High-Pressure and Coercive Sales Techniques	295
5.5.1	UDAP Precedent	295
5.5.2	High-Pressure Sales As Unfair Practices	296
5.6	Contracts, Warranties and Legal Rights	296
5.6.1	Contract Language for Non-English Speaking Consumers	296
5.6.1.1	Introduction	296
5.6.1.2	UDAP Claims	296
5.6.1.3	Other Statutory Requirements	297
5.6.1.4	Relevance of “English-Only” Laws	298
5.6.2	Plain English Contract Language	298
5.6.3	Unfair and Unenforceable Adhesion Contract Terms	299
5.6.3.1	FTC Credit Practices Rule Sets Out Theory for Unfair Standard Form Contract Terms	299
5.6.3.2	Other FTC Precedent	301
5.6.3.3	Illegal or Unenforceable Contract Terms As an Unfair and Deceptive Practice	301
5.6.3.4	Other State Precedent on Adhesion Contracts	302
5.6.4	Contractual Misrepresentations	302
5.6.4.1	Deception Concerning the Nature of the Document Being Signed	302
5.6.4.2	Oral Representations Inconsistent with the Contract	303
5.6.5	Breaches of Contract	303
5.6.5.1	Mere Breach of Contract May Not Be UDAP Violation	303
5.6.5.2	Systematic Breach of Many Consumer Contracts As UDAP Violation	305
5.6.5.3	Entering into Contract with No Intention to Fulfill Obligations	306
5.6.5.4	Unfairness, Deception, or Other Aggravating Circumstances Accompanying the Contract Breach	306
5.6.5.5	Unequal Relationship of the Parties	307

Contents

5.6.6 Refunds and Cancellation Rights	307
5.6.7 Guarantees, Warranties, and Service Contracts.	309
5.6.7.1 Breach of Warranties As UDAP Violations	309
5.6.7.1.1 Advantages of UDAP claims in breach of warranty cases.	309
5.6.7.1.2 Warranty breach as per se UDAP violation.	309
5.6.7.1.3 Aggravating circumstances can turn breach of warranty into UDAP violation.	311
5.6.7.1.4 Magnuson-Moss breach of warranty violation as a per se UDAP violation	311
5.6.7.2 Service Contracts.	312
5.6.7.2.1 Duplication of warranty rights	312
5.6.7.2.2 Deceptive marketing techniques	312
5.6.7.2.3 Failure to pay consumer claims under the service contract	312
5.6.7.3 Misrepresentations Concerning the Status of a Guarantee.	313
5.6.7.3.1 General.	313
5.6.7.3.2 Thirty-day, “50-50” warranties.	314
5.6.8 Other Misrepresentations of Legal Rights and Requirements; Misrepresentation of Law vs. Fact.	315
5.6.9 Merchant’s Slow Payment on Judgment Owed Consumer	316
5.7 Deceptive Performance Practices	316
5.7.1 Layaway Plans; Other Deposits.	316
5.7.2 Delay and Nondelivery	317
5.7.3 Damaged and Defective Goods	319
5.7.4 Used As New; Prior Use	319
5.7.5 Substitution of Displayed Products	320
5.7.6 Repair Practices	320
5.7.7 Deceptive Billing Practices.	322
5.8 Anti-Competitive Conduct	323
5.8.1 Application of UDAP Statutes to Anti-Competitive Conduct	323
5.8.1.1 Introduction	323
5.8.1.2 Can Indirect Purchasers Recover Under State UDAP Statutes?	324
5.8.1.3 Does the UDAP Statute Prohibit Anti-Competitive Conduct?	325
5.8.2 Challenging Consumer Abuses As Anti-Competitive	326
5.8.3 Federal Antitrust Law	327
5.9 Invasion of Privacy	327

Chapter 6

Credit and Collections

6.1 Introduction	329
6.2 Loan Brokers	329
6.2.1 General.	329
6.2.2 Advance-Fee Brokers	330
6.2.3 Yield Spread Premiums	331
6.3 Improvident Extension of Credit	332
6.3.1 General.	332
6.3.2 UDAP and Other Laws Prohibiting Credit That Consumer Cannot Repay	333
6.3.3 Applying General UDAP Prohibitions to Improvident Extension of Credit.	333
6.3.4 Falsification of Credit Application by Seller or Broker	334
6.3.4.1 Nature of the Problem	334
6.3.4.2 The Consumer’s Legal Claims	334
6.3.4.3 Computing the Consumer’s Damages	335
6.3.4.4 Consumer’s Clean Hands	335
6.4 Violations of Federal and State Credit Laws as UDAP Violations.	336
6.4.1 Truth in Lending Violations	336

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

6.4.2	RESPA Violations	336
6.4.3	Discriminatory Extension of Credit	337
6.4.4	Violations of State Credit Laws	338
6.4.5	Attempts to Evade Credit Legislation	339
6.5	Exorbitant Credit Charges	339
6.5.1	Credit Costs That Are Grossly in Excess of Those Usually Charged in Market	339
6.5.2	Other Unfairness or Unconscionability in Credit Charges	340
6.5.3	Uncovering Deception in Excessive Charge Cases	341
6.6	Deception, Coercion, and Violation of Credit Contract	343
6.6.1	Misrepresentation of Credit Terms	343
6.6.2	Nondisclosure of True Credit Terms	345
6.6.2.1	General	345
6.6.2.2	Rules Requiring Disclosure of All Material Restrictions	346
6.6.3	Coercive Tactics	346
6.6.4	Post-Consummation Violation of Credit Terms	347
6.6.5	Banking Agency Guidelines	347
6.7	Special Issues in Home Mortgage Loans	347
6.7.1	Negotiation, Closing, and Loan Terms	347
6.7.2	Servicing and Escrow Practices	350
6.7.3	Payoff of Mortgage	350
6.7.4	Equity Stripping	350
6.8	Credit Cards and Related Services	351
6.8.1	Credit Card Marketing and Terms	351
6.8.1.1	General	351
6.8.1.2	Office of the Comptroller of the Currency Advisory Letters	351
6.8.1.3	Subprime and “Fee-Harvester” Credit Cards	352
6.8.2	Credit Card Finders	353
6.8.3	Unauthorized Credit Card Charges	354
6.8.4	Credit Balances	355
6.8.5	Credit Card Loss Protection and Reporting Services	355
6.9	Bank Accounts, Checks, Other Payment Methods	355
6.9.1	Deposit Accounts	355
6.9.2	Check Cashing	356
6.9.3	“Telechecks” and Unauthorized Electronic Fund Transfers	356
6.9.4	Remittances	357
6.9.5	Live Check Solicitations	357
6.9.6	Gift Cards and Gift Certificates	357
6.10	Debt Collection	358
6.10.1	Advantages of UDAP Statute As a Remedy for Debt Collection Abuse	358
6.10.2	Sources of UDAP precedent	359
6.10.3	Misrepresentations Concerning Identity and Nature of Collector	359
6.10.4	Misrepresentations Concerning Imminence of Threatened Actions, Damage to Consumer’s Credit Rating	360
6.10.5	Misrepresentations Concerning Legal Consequences of Debt Nonpayment	361
6.10.6	Harassment	362
6.10.7	Collecting Debts or Amounts That Are Not Owed	362
6.10.8	Taking Illegal Actions Against the Consumer or the Consumer’s Property	364
6.10.9	Abuse of Process, Inconvenient Venue	364
6.11	FTC Credit Practices Rule	365
6.11.1	General Overview	365
6.11.2	Similar FRB, OTS, and NCUA Rules for Banks	365
6.11.3	FTC Staff Letters As Precedent	366

Contents

6.11.4	Confession of Judgment Provision	366
6.11.5	Waiver of Exemption Clauses	366
6.11.6	Wage Assignments	367
6.11.7	Household Goods Security Interests	367
6.11.8	Pyramiding Late Charges	369
6.11.9	Cosigner Warning Notice	369
6.11.10	Private UDAP Actions Utilizing the FTC Rule	370
6.11.11	Attempts to Circumvent FTC Credit Practices Rule	370
6.12	Challenging Other Creditor Remedies	371
6.12.1	Using the FTC Unfairness Theory, As Applied in the Credit Practices Rule	371
6.12.2	Case Law Finding Creditor Remedies Unfair or Deceptive	372
6.13	Unfair and Deceptive Repossession and Pawnshop Practices	372
6.13.1	Unfair Contract Provisions	372
6.13.2	Deceptive Contract Provisions.	373
6.13.3	Unfair and Deceptive Repossession Conduct	373
6.13.4	Unfair or Deceptive Practices Relating to Redemption, Collateral Sales, Deficiencies, and Surpluses.	374
6.13.5	Pawnbrokers' Sale of Pawned Goods	375
6.14	Unfair and Deceptive Foreclosure and Foreclosure Rescue Practices	375
6.14.1	Foreclosure Practices	375
6.14.2	Foreclosure Rescue Scams	376
6.15	Credit Repair, Credit Counseling, Debt Settlement, and Debt Elimination.	378
6.15.1	Credit Repair Organizations	378
6.15.2	Credit Counselors	378
6.15.3	Debt Settlement	378
6.15.4	Debt Elimination.	379

Chapter 7

Motor Vehicle Sales, Rentals, and Repair

7.1	Discovery in Automobile Sales Cases.	381
7.1.1	Introduction	381
7.1.2	Documents Available from the Dealer and Other Entities	381
7.1.3	Inspection of the Vehicle and Accompanying Documentation	383
7.1.4	Licensing Agencies and the State Insurance Department	383
7.1.5	Law Enforcement and Consumer Complaint Agencies; Revenue Agencies.	383
7.1.6	Court Files and Former Employees	383
7.1.7	Competitors and Trade Associations	384
7.1.8	Prior Owners, the Manufacturer's Warranty Records, Dealer Repair Records, Auction Records	384
7.1.9	Tape Recording Conversations Between Dealer and Consumer	384
7.1.10	The Internet	384
7.1.11	The NADA Code of Ethics.	384
7.1.12	Uncovering Hidden Dealer Assets	385
7.1.13	Individuals to Depose	386
7.2	"Back End" Sales: Rust-Proofing, Financing, Insurance, Service Contracts, Documentary Charges, and Other Add-Ons	387
7.2.1	Back-End Sales Explained	387
7.2.2	"Packing" of Back-End Charges.	387
7.2.3	Rustproofing and Other Dealer-Installed Add-Ons	388
7.2.3.1	General	388
7.2.3.2	UDAP Precedent Concerning Rustproofing	389
7.2.4	Dealer Kickbacks on Financing.	390
7.2.4.1	The Practice Explained	390
7.2.4.2	ECOA Challenges	390

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

7.2.4.3	TIL and State Law Challenges	391
7.2.4.4	UDAP Challenges	391
7.2.5	Dealer’s Altering of Consumer’s Credit Application, Fictitious Down Payments, and Other Frauds on the Financer.	391
7.2.6	Service Contracts, Extended Warranties	392
7.2.6.1	Undisclosed Dealer Profit on Sale of Contract	392
7.2.6.2	Where Dealer Is Actually the Service Contract Provider	393
7.2.6.3	Does the Contract Provide Meaningful Benefits?	393
7.2.6.4	Undisclosed Inspection Fees	394
7.2.6.5	Who Must Provide Benefits on the Service Contract	394
7.2.7	Credit Insurance and Other Insurance Products	394
7.2.8	Documentary Fees and Other “Paper” Charges.	394
7.2.8.1	Introduction	394
7.2.8.2	UDAP Challenges	395
7.2.8.3	Truth in Lending Challenges	396
7.2.8.4	Anti-Trust Claims	396
7.2.8.5	State Statutory Restrictions	396
7.2.8.6	Unauthorized Practice of Law	396
7.3	Unfair Dealer Negotiation Practices	397
7.3.1	The Turnover System	397
7.3.2	Dealer’s Illegal Use of Consumer Credit Reports.	397
7.3.3	“Unhorsing” and Selling the Consumer’s Trade-In Prematurely.	398
7.3.4	Dealers Hiding Trade-Ins’ Negative Equity.	398
7.3.5	Dealer Failing to Payoff the Lien on the Consumer’s Trade-In.	399
7.3.6	Lowering the Trade-In’s Agreed-Upon Price	400
7.3.7	Playing Fast and Loose with the Paperwork	400
7.3.8	Misrepresentations As to Consumer Cancellation Rights; Three-Day Cooling-Off Period Under Credit Repair Laws and California Statute	401
7.3.9	Yo-Yo (Spot-Delivery) Abuses	402
7.4	Used Car Sales	402
7.4.1	Introduction	402
7.4.2	FTC Used Car Rule	402
7.4.2.1	The Rule’s Scope.	402
7.4.2.2	Rule Requirements.	403
7.4.2.3	Common Rule Violations	404
7.4.2.4	Remedies for Rule Violations	404
7.4.2.5	Where Buyers Guide Warranty Disclosure Conflicts with Warranty Provided in the Sales Agreement	405
7.4.2.6	FTC Used Car Rule Does Not Insulate Sellers from UDAP Liability	405
7.4.3	Sale of Used Cars As New; Demonstrators and Program Cars	405
7.4.4	Nature of Prior Use.	406
7.4.5	Odometer Rollbacks and Mileage Misrepresentations	407
7.4.6	Sale of Salvage and Flood-Damaged Cars and Undisclosed Body Damage	408
7.4.7	“Lemon Laundering” (Undisclosed Sale of Car Previously Returned As a Lemon)	409
7.4.8	Deceptive Practices Relating to Goodwill Buybacks.	409
7.4.9	Nondisclosure or Misrepresentation of Vehicle Defects.	409
7.4.9.1	General	409
7.4.9.2	The Special Case of a Demonstrator with a Repair History	410
7.4.9.3	Dealer Re-Sale of the Same Junk Used RV or Car to Lure Consumers into More Costly Deals.	410
7.4.10	Misrepresentations Concerning Clear Title	410
7.4.11	Misrepresentations of Vehicle Characteristics.	411
7.4.12	Misrepresentations as to Vehicle Warranty.	411

Contents

7.4.13 Excessive Price	411
7.4.14 Buy Here—Pay Here Dealerships	412
7.4.14.1 General	412
7.4.14.2 Credit Repair Laws May Apply to “Buy Here—Pay Here” Dealerships	413
7.4.14.3 Revolving Repossession Practices	413
7.4.14.4 Information to Obtain in Discovery	413
7.4.15 Private Sellers and Curbstoners	413
7.5 New Car Sales	413
7.5.1 Introduction	413
7.5.2 Pricing Misrepresentations	414
7.5.3 The Monroney Sticker	417
7.5.4 Undisclosed Damage Before a New Car Is Sold	417
7.5.5 Misrepresentation of Vehicle Identity, Characteristics	419
7.5.6 Stealing Manufacturer Rebates	419
7.5.7 Destination Charges	420
7.5.8 Slow and Non-Delivery of Ordered Cars	420
7.5.9 Misrepresentation of Warranties Offered	420
7.5.10 Manufacturer and Dealer Handling of New Car Defects	421
7.5.10.1 Obligation to Disclose Known Defects	421
7.5.10.2 Secret Warranties	421
7.5.10.3 Breach of Written and Implied Warranties As UDAP Violations	422
7.6 Automobile Leases	422
7.6.1 Applicability of UDAP to Automobile Leases	422
7.6.2 Deceptive Inducements and Misrepresentations About the Nature of the Lease	423
7.6.3 Early Termination and Default	424
7.6.4 UDAP Violations at Scheduled Termination, Including Charges for Excess Mileage and Wear	425
7.6.5 UCC Article 2A Unconscionability As Alternative to UDAP Claim	425
7.7 Daily Rental Car Practices	426
7.7.1 Introduction	426
7.7.2 Collision Damage Waivers and Insurance	426
7.7.3 Undisclosed Charges and Switching of Car Models	427
7.7.4 Excess Charges to Repair Damage	427
7.7.5 Abuses Relating to Use of GPS Devices	428
7.8 Automobile Brokers and Car Finders	428
7.8.1 Dealers Assisting Consumer in Renting an RV	428
7.8.2 Automobile Finding Services	428
7.9 Sale of Automobile Accessories	428
7.10 Automobile Repairs and Towing	429
7.10.1 Introduction	429
7.10.2 Estimates, Repair Orders	429
7.10.3 Replaced Parts and Invoices	430
7.10.4 Misrepresentation That Work Is Required or of Type of Work Performed; Shoddy Work	431
7.10.5 Timeliness of Repairs; Unauthorized Use of Car	432
7.10.6 Failure to Correct Inadequate Repairs	432
7.10.7 Bill Collecting Practices	433
7.10.8 Towing Practices	433

Chapter 8

Home and Home-Related Transactions

8.1 Manufactured Homes	435
8.1.1 Manufactured Home Sales	435

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

8.1.1.1	General	435
8.1.1.2	Improvident Extension of Manufactured Home Credit	436
8.1.1.3	Brokers Selling Manufactured Homes for Consumers	436
8.1.1.4	Land-Home Packages	436
8.1.2	Manufactured Home Parks	437
8.1.2.1	Preliminary Issues	437
8.1.2.2	Park Rental Agreements, Rules, and Fees; Performance of Park Obligations; Sale of Utilities	437
8.1.2.3	Unfair Restriction on Tenant’s Sale of the Home	438
8.1.2.4	Park Eviction Practices	439
8.1.2.5	Other Approaches to Protecting Manufactured Home Park Tenants	439
8.1.2.5.1	Tenant ownership of the park	439
8.1.2.5.2	Comprehensive manufactured home park legislation	440
8.1.2.5.3	Referral to manufactured home park tenant associations	440
8.2	Landlord-Tenant and Employer-Provided Housing	441
8.2.1	Introduction	441
8.2.2	Apartment Finders	441
8.2.3	Security Deposits and Calculation of Rents	442
8.2.4	Rental Agreements	442
8.2.5	Quality of Housing	443
8.2.5.1	Substandard Housing	443
8.2.5.2	Failure to Obtain Occupancy Certificates	444
8.2.5.3	Misrepresentations Related to Crime Prevention	444
8.2.6	Utilities	444
8.2.7	The Tenant’s Early Termination	444
8.2.8	Evictions	445
8.2.8.1	Deceptive Notices to Quit	445
8.2.8.2	Retaliatory Evictions	445
8.2.8.3	Improper Means to Evict	445
8.2.8.4	Excessive Fees	446
8.2.8.5	Landlord Seizure of Evicted Tenant’s Possessions	446
8.2.9	Employer-Provided Housing: Migrant Farmworker Camps	447
8.3	Real Estate and Home Sales	447
8.3.1	Inapplicability of Seller Defenses	447
8.3.2	Deception Concerning the Nature of the Home	447
8.3.3	UDAP Violations Concerning Title, Financing, and the Homeowner’s Legal Rights	450
8.3.4	Property Flipping	450
8.3.4.1	Importance of Suing Multiple Participants in the Scam	450
8.3.4.2	UDAP Precedent	451
8.3.4.3	Violation of FHA Guidelines As Basis for UDAP Claim	452
8.3.4.4	Other Causes of Action	452
8.3.5	Special Issues Concerning Real Estate Agents and Brokers	452
8.3.6	Special Issues Concerning Appraisers	454
8.3.7	Special Issues Concerning Home Builders	456
8.3.7.1	Misrepresentations Concerning the Home or Work to Be Performed	456
8.3.7.2	Performance Problems, Warranties	457
8.3.8	Precut Housing	457
8.3.9	Land Fraud Schemes	457
8.3.10	Condominiums and Timeshares	459
8.4	Home Improvements Sales	459
8.4.1	Introduction	459
8.4.2	Marketing Misrepresentations	460

Contents

8.4.3	The Home Improvement Contract and Warranties	461
8.4.4	Building Permits and Construction Standards	462
8.4.5	High Prices and Changes in the Agreed-Upon Price	462
8.4.6	Failure to Perform Work Properly and As Scheduled	463
8.4.7	Credit-Related Practices and Lender Liability	464
8.5	Heating Fuel, Electricity, Telecommunications, and Other Utilities	464
8.5.1	Heating Oil, Propane, Kerosene and Wood	464
8.5.1.1	Problems Facing Users of Unregulated Fuels	464
8.5.1.2	Applicability of the UDAP Statute	465
8.5.1.3	UDAP Case Law	465
8.5.1.4	UDAP Regulations	466
8.5.1.5	Price Gouging	466
8.5.1.6	UDAP Principles Applicable to the Sale of Unregulated Fuels	467
8.5.2	Gas and Electric Service	468
8.5.2.1	Applicability	468
8.5.2.2	Retail Energy Market Abuses by Unregulated Suppliers	468
8.5.2.3	Illegal Shut-Offs	469
8.5.3	Telephone, Telecommunications, and Internet Services	469
8.5.3.1	UDAP Applicability	469
8.5.3.2	Long-Distance Telephone Rates	470
8.5.3.3	Slamming (Changing Long-Distance Carriers Without the Consumer's Authorization)	471
8.5.3.4	Prepaid Phone Cards	472
8.5.3.5	Unauthorized Charges	472
8.5.3.6	Wireless Service	473
8.5.3.7	Practices by Local Telephone Companies	475
8.5.3.8	Voice Over Internet	476
8.5.3.9	Internet Service Providers and Domain Name Registrations	476
8.5.4	Water and Sewer Service	477
8.5.4.1	Overview	477
8.5.4.2	Governmental or Regulated Utilities	477
8.5.4.3	Unregulated Providers	478
8.6	Household Goods Moving and Storage	479
8.6.1	Household Goods Movers	479
8.6.2	Storage of Goods	479
8.7	Other Household Services	479
8.7.1	Alarm and Emergency Response Systems, Other Emergency Devices	479
8.7.2	Pest Control Services	479
8.7.3	Water Quality Improvement Systems	480
8.7.4	Radon Testing	481
8.8	Rent to Own	481
8.8.1	Importance of UDAP Approach	481
8.8.2	Applicability of UDAP Statutes to RTO Transactions	482
8.8.3	Deceptive RTO Inducements, Sales and Warranty Practices	482
8.8.4	Disclosure of RTO Transaction's Effective Annual Percentage Rate	483
8.8.5	Applicability of Three-Day Cooling-Off Period to RTO Transactions	483
8.8.5.1	General	483
8.8.5.2	The $25 Minimum Payment Requirement	484
8.8.5.3	Does the Transaction Take Place Outside the RTO Store?	484
8.8.6	Deceptive Repossession and Debt Collection Tactics	484
8.8.7	UCC Article 2A Unconscionability As Alternative to UDAP	485
8.9	Other Household Products	485
8.9.1	Energy Savings Claims for Household Products	485
8.9.2	Environmental Claims for Household Products	487
8.9.3	Computers and Other Electronic Equipment	488

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

8.9.4 Freezer Meats	488
8.9.5 Furniture and Carpet Sales	489
8.9.6 Household Cleaners and Purifiers	489
8.9.7 Toys and Musical Instruments.	489
8.9.8 Handguns	489
8.9.9 Magazines and Encyclopedias.	490
8.9.10 Miscellaneous Household Products	490

Chapter 9

Door-to-Door Sales, Telemarketing, Junk Faxes, Spam, Other Sales Approaches

9.1 Introduction	491
9.2 Door-to-Door and Off-Premises Sales.	491
9.2.1 The FTC Cooling-Off Period Rule.	491
9.2.2 Interrelation of FTC Rule with State Law.	492
9.2.3 Interrelation of FTC Rule and State Law with Truth in Lending Rescission	493
9.2.4 Scope of the FTC Rule	494
9.2.4.1 Sales Outside the Home Are Also Covered	494
9.2.4.2 Effect of Prior Negotiations, Seller Being Invited to the Home	494
9.2.4.3 Buyer-Initiated Visits to Home to Repair Personal Property	495
9.2.4.4 Emergency Exception.	495
9.2.4.5 Mail and Telephone Sales	495
9.2.4.6 Leases, Rent-to-Own Transactions, Transactions Under $25	495
9.2.4.7 Sales of Real Property, Home Improvements, Securities, and Insurance	496
9.2.4.8 What Sellers Are Covered.	496
9.2.5 Scope of State Laws	496
9.2.5.1 Overview	496
9.2.5.2 Coverage That Is Broader Than the FTC Rule	497
9.2.5.3 Narrower Coverage Than the FTC rule	497
9.2.5.4 Level of In-Home Contact Required Under State Statutes	498
9.2.5.5 Particular Interpretations of State Law Scope Provisions	499
9.2.6 Consumers' Rights Under FTC Rule, State Statutes	500
9.2.6.1 Mechanics of Three-Day Cancellation Right	500
9.2.6.2 No Recovery for Services Performed Prior to Cancellation.	500
9.2.6.3 Continuing Right to Cancel If Notice Is Defective	501
9.2.6.4 Other Consumer Protections	502
9.2.7 Consumer Remedies Under Cooling-Off Rule, State Statutes	502
9.3 Referral Sales.	503
9.4 Unsolicited Goods.	503
9.5 Negative Option Plans	504
9.6 Telemarketing and Junk Faxes.	505
9.6.1 Introduction	505
9.6.2 Overview of State and Federal Telemarketing Statutes and Regulations.	505
9.6.3 Telephone Consumer Protection Act	506
9.6.3.1 Scope.	506
9.6.3.2 Challenges to Statute and Regulation	506
9.6.3.3 Junk Faxes	508
9.6.3.3.1 Prohibition of junk faxes	508
9.6.3.3.2 Types of junk faxes prohibited	508
9.6.3.3.3 Express invitation or permission; established business relationship	509
9.6.3.3.4 Other junk fax restrictions and requirements.	511
9.6.3.3.5 Other junk fax claims	511

Contents

9.6.3.4	General Restrictions on Auto Dialers and Prerecorded Messages; Abandoned Calls	512
9.6.3.5	Prerecorded Calls	513
9.6.3.6	General and Company-Specific Do-Not-Call Lists	514
9.6.3.7	Restrictions on Calling Times	515
9.6.3.8	Transmitting Caller ID Information and Prohibition of Caller ID Blocking	515
9.6.3.9	Consumer Remedies	515
9.6.3.9.1	Creation of private cause of action	515
9.6.3.9.2	Jurisdiction in state and federal court	516
9.6.3.9.3	Relief	518
9.6.3.9.4	Who is liable	520
9.6.4	FTC Telemarketing Sales Rule and Statute	521
9.6.4.1	Overview	521
9.6.4.2	Scope of Statute and Rule	522
9.6.4.3	Disclosures Required	523
9.6.4.3.1	General disclosure requirements	523
9.6.4.3.2	Special disclosure requirements for prize promotions	524
9.6.4.4	Prohibition Against Deception	524
9.6.4.4.1	General prohibition	524
9.6.4.4.2	Charitable contributions	525
9.6.4.4.3	Prize promotions and investment opportunities	525
9.6.4.5	Harassment and Abuse	525
9.6.4.5.1	General prohibition	525
9.6.4.5.2	Abandoned calls	525
9.6.4.6	Privacy Issues: Calling Hours, Do-Not-Call Lists, and Caller ID Blocking	526
9.6.4.6.1	Calling hours	526
9.6.4.6.2	Company-specific do-not-call lists	526
9.6.4.6.3	Nationwide do-not-call list	526
9.6.4.6.4	Prohibition against Caller ID blocking	528
9.6.4.7	Special Rules for Particular Types of Telemarketing Solicitations	528
9.6.4.7.1	Credit card protection services	528
9.6.4.7.2	Negative option sales	528
9.6.4.7.3	Special restrictions for credit repair services, advance-fee credit offers, and recovery rooms	529
9.6.4.7.4	Preacquired account telemarketing	529
9.6.4.8	Protections Against Unauthorized Billing and Credit Card Laundering	531
9.6.4.8.1	Prohibition against unauthorized billing	531
9.6.4.8.2	Requirement of “express verifiable authorization” when payment is made by certain methods	531
9.6.4.8.3	Credit card laundering	532
9.6.4.9	Public and Private Enforcement of the Rule	532
9.6.4.9.1	Public enforcement	532
9.6.4.9.2	Private enforcement	533
9.6.5	Federal and State Rules for Mail or Telephone Orders	533
9.6.5.1	FTC Mail or Telephone Order Merchandise Rule	533
9.6.5.2	State Mail and Telephone Order Laws and Regulation	534
9.6.6	Application of State and Federal RICO Statutes to Telemarketing Fraud	534
9.6.7	State Telemarketing Fraud Statutes	535
9.6.8	Application of UDAP, Fraud, and Other State Statutes to Telemarketing Fraud	536
9.6.9	Identifying All the Entities Liable for a Telemarketer’s Fraud	537
9.6.10	Practical Steps to Remedy or Prevent Telemarketing Fraud	539

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

9.6.10.1	Withholding Payment on Credit Card Bill for Fraudulent Telemarketing Sale	539
9.6.10.2	Reporting Telemarketing Fraud.	539
9.6.10.3	Stopping Future Consumer Victimization	539
9.7	900-Number Fraud	540
9.7.1	Nature of 900-Number Fraud	540
9.7.2	Federal 900-Number Regulation	540
9.7.3	State Laws Regulating 900 Numbers	541
9.7.4	Other Entities Liable for a Provider's 900-Number Fraud	542
9.7.5	Practical Suggestions to Avoid 900-Number Fraud.	543
9.8	On-Line Fraud	543
9.9	Unsolicited Bulk Commercial E-mail (Spam)	544
9.9.1	Why Unsolicited Bulk Commercial E-mail Is a Problem for Consumers	544
9.9.2	Substantive Prohibitions of Federal CAN-SPAM Act	545
9.9.3	Enforcement of the CAN-SPAM Act	546
9.9.4	Application of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act to Spam	547
9.9.5	Application of Other Federal Laws to Spam	547
9.9.6	State Anti-Spam Laws.	548
9.9.6.1	Introduction	548
9.9.6.2	Constitutional Challenges and Preemption	548
9.9.6.3	Remedies Under State Anti-Spam Laws	549
9.9.7	Other State Law Claims.	549
9.9.8	Practical Problems in Suing Spammers	550

Chapter 10

Services, Insurance, Opportunity Schemes, Other Transactions

10.1	Future-Service Contracts: Health Spas, Dance Studios, Membership Campgrounds, Buying Clubs, and Trade Schools	553
10.1.1	Introduction	553
10.1.2	Cancellation of Future-Service Contracts	554
10.1.2.1	The Seller's Contract Provision	554
10.1.2.2	State Statutes May Override Contractual Cancellation Provision	554
10.1.2.3	Contract Law Defenses May Provide Additional Protections	554
10.1.2.4	UDAP Approaches.	555
10.1.3	Health Clubs	555
10.1.3.1	FTC Rulemaking Proceeding, State Statutes	555
10.1.3.2	UDAP Precedent	556
10.1.3.3	When a Health Club Closes Down	557
10.1.4	Dance Studios	558
10.1.5	Campground Resort Memberships	558
10.1.5.1	A Case Study of Abusive Sales Techniques	558
10.1.5.2	Post-Sale Abusive Collection	560
10.1.5.3	Potential Campground Membership Resort UDAP Violations	560
10.1.5.4	Special Membership Campground Statutes	562
10.1.5.5	Practice Tips	563
10.1.6	Buying Clubs; Discount Coupons	564
10.1.7	Trade School Abuses.	565
10.1.7.1	Nature and History of Trade School Abuses	565
10.1.7.2	FTC Guides	566
10.1.7.3	UDAP Precedent	566
10.1.7.4	Other Claims.	568
10.1.7.5	Advising Trade School Clients	568
10.2	Travel	569
10.2.1	Air Travel	569
10.2.2	Cruises	569

Contents

10.2.3	Travel Packages and Certificates	569
10.2.4	Travel Agents	570
10.2.5	Marketing of International Driver's Permits	570
10.3	Health, Nutrition, and Funerals	570
10.3.1	Hearing Aids	570
10.3.2	Other Medical Cures, Food Advertising	571
10.3.3	Nursing Facilities	573
10.3.3.1	General	573
10.3.3.2	Common Violations of the Federal Nursing Home Reform Law	573
10.3.3.2.1	Third-party guarantees	573
10.3.3.2.2	Other common NHRL violations	574
10.3.4	Assisted Living Facilities	574
10.3.5	Funerals	575
10.3.5.1	The FTC Rule	575
10.3.5.2	Case Law	577
10.3.6	Hospital Treatment and Payment Issues	577
10.3.7	Managed Care	578
10.3.8	Tobacco	578
10.4	Attorneys, Living Trusts, Other Fiduciaries	579
10.4.1	Attorneys	579
10.4.2	Nonattorney Legal Service Providers and the Unauthorized Practice of Law	580
10.4.2.1	Introduction	580
10.4.2.2	Immigration Consultants or Assistants	580
10.4.2.2.1	Unfair and deceptive tactics	580
10.4.2.2.2	State immigration consultant laws	581
10.4.2.3	Bankruptcy Petition Preparers	582
10.4.2.4	Unauthorized Practice of Law	583
10.4.2.5	Tort and Other Causes of Action	584
10.4.3	Living Trusts	584
10.4.4	Trustees, Escrow Agents, Other Fiduciaries	586
10.4.5	Investigators and Other "Finders"	586
10.4.6	Accountants	587
10.5	Insurance	587
10.5.1	Introduction	587
10.5.2	State Unfair Insurance Practices Act (UNIP) Legislation	587
10.5.2.1	UNIP Legislation Described	587
10.5.2.2	Private UNIP Actions	588
10.5.2.2.1	Is there a private UNIP remedy?	588
10.5.2.2.2	Advantages and disadvantages of a private UNIP claim	592
10.5.2.3	Effect of UNIP Statute in a UDAP Action	592
10.5.2.3.1	UNIP standards as guides for determining UDAP violations	592
10.5.2.3.2	UDAP scope, displacement, exhaustion of administrative remedies, and primary jurisdiction	594
10.5.3	Unreasonable Refusal or Delay in Paying Claim As a UDAP Violation	594
10.5.3.1	Refusal to Pay	594
10.5.3.2	Excessive Delay and Evasiveness As a UDAP Violation	596
10.5.3.3	Failure to Conduct an Adequate Investigation As UDAP Violation	597
10.5.3.4	Nondisclosure and Deception in the Claims Settlement Process	598
10.5.3.5	Requiring Consumer to Sign Waiver As UDAP Violation	598
10.5.3.6	Third-Party Settlement Practices	599

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

10.5.3.7	Is a Pattern of Unfair Claims Payments a Precondition to a UDAP Action?	599
10.5.3.8	UDAP Claim Distinguished from Claim Based on Insurer’s Breach of Contract	600
10.5.3.9	Litigating the Bad Faith Refusal As a UDAP Claim	601
10.5.3.10	Parties Liable for Unfair Claims Settlement Practices	601
10.5.4	Misrepresentation Concerning Policy and Claims Settlement Practices	601
10.5.4.1	Misrepresentation Concerning Policy Coverage and Features	601
10.5.4.2	Misrepresentations Concerning Insurer Claims Settlement Policies	603
10.5.5	Twisting; Sale of Unnecessary Insurance; Other Unfair or Deceptive Sales Schemes	603
10.5.6	Unfair Discrimination	604
10.5.7	Excessive Premiums As a UDAP Violation	604
10.5.8	Third Party’s Failure to Purchase Insurance for the Consumer	605
10.5.9	Credit Insurance	606
10.5.9.1	Introduction	606
10.5.9.2	Failure to Disclose Excessive Cost or Kickbacks	606
10.5.9.3	Marketing Deception, Illusory Coverage	607
10.5.9.4	Coercion in Selling Credit Insurance	607
10.5.9.4.1	Why creditors portray credit insurance as voluntary	607
10.5.9.4.2	UDAP challenges	607
10.5.9.5	Sale of Excessive Credit Property Insurance	608
10.5.9.6	Failure to Pay Credit Insurance Claims	609
10.5.10	Force Placed Automobile Insurance	609
10.5.10.1	General	609
10.5.10.2	Uncovering Force Placed Insurance Problems	610
10.5.10.3	Failure to Disclose Severe Limits on Single Interest Coverage	610
10.5.10.4	Charging the Consumer for Extra Coverages Not Authorized by the Credit Agreement	611
10.5.10.5	Failure to Notify Consumers of Force Placed Coverage	611
10.5.10.6	Lenders Pocketing Experience-Related Refunds and Dividends	611
10.5.10.7	Kickbacks to Lenders	612
10.5.10.8	Forcing the Consumer to Pay for Tracking and Notification Costs for Other Consumers	612
10.5.10.9	Inflating Financing Costs	612
10.5.10.10	Selecting Legal Claims	612
10.5.11	“Packing” Non-Credit Insurance in Conjunction with Credit Sale	613
10.5.11.1	“Packing” Described	613
10.5.11.2	Insurance Packing As a UDAP Violation	614
10.5.12	Mortgage Insurance	615
10.6	Opportunity Schemes and Other “Nonsale” Transactions	616
10.6.1	Franchises and Business Opportunities	616
10.6.1.1	FTC Franchising Rule	616
10.6.1.2	Other FTC, State UDAP Precedent	617
10.6.1.3	Investments	619
10.6.2	Employment Opportunities	619
10.6.3	Pyramid Sales	622
10.6.4	Contests and Game Promotions	624
10.6.5	Charitable Solicitations	626
10.6.5.1	State and Federal Restrictions	626
10.6.5.2	Constitutional Issues	626
10.6.6	Scholarship Location Services and Diploma Mills	627

Chapter 11

Liability of Various Parties

11.1	Introduction	629
11.2	Liability of Agents and Employees	630
11.3	Liability of Principals, Co-Venturers	631
11.3.1	Principals Liable for the Acts of Their Agents	631
11.3.1.1	Introduction	631
11.3.1.2	The General Rule That Principles Are Liable	631
11.3.1.3	Liability Even Where Agent Acts Without Authority	632
11.3.1.4	Are Dealers Agents for the Manufacturer?	632
11.3.1.5	Principal’s Liability for Multiple Damages	633
11.3.1.6	Liability of Government Entities for Their Agents	633
11.3.2	Principal’s Liability for Actions of Independent Contractor	633
11.3.3	Liability of Co-Venturers, Partners	634
11.4	Liability of Officers, Directors, Owners, Parent Companies, Franchisors, Successor Corporations, and an Individual’s Estate	634
11.4.1	Introduction	634
11.4.2	Liability for Own Actions	634
11.4.2.1	General	634
11.4.2.2	Conduct Sufficient to Create Liability	635
11.4.2.3	FTC Precedent	637
11.4.3	Piercing the Corporate Veil and Related Theories	638
11.4.4	Liability of Franchisors	639
11.4.5	Liability of Other Closely-Related Corporations	639
11.4.6	Liability of Successor Corporations	640
11.4.7	Survival of Action After Defendant’s Death	640
11.5	Those Aiding or Furnishing Means for Deception; Civil Conspiracy and Joint Enterprise	641
11.5.1	Introduction	641
11.5.2	Types of Parties Who May Be Liable	641
11.5.3	Conduct Sufficient to Trigger Liability	643
11.5.3.1	General	643
11.5.3.2	Aiding and Abetting	643
11.5.3.2.1	Conduct sufficient to create liability	643
11.5.3.2.2	Where liability may not be found	644
11.5.3.3	Civil Conspiracy	644
11.5.3.3.1	General	644
11.5.3.3.2	The required elements	646
11.5.3.4	Ratification, Acceptance of Benefits, and Concealment of Fraud	647
11.5.4	Liability of Credit Card Issuers As Aiders and Abettors	647
11.5.5	Credit Card ISOs and Other Intermediaries As Aiders and Abettors	648
11.5.6	Those Assisting Telemarketing Fraud	649
11.5.7	Endorsers and Accrediting Organizations	650
11.6	Liability of Assignees and Related Creditors for Seller’s Misconduct Under the FTC Holder Rule	650
11.6.1	Overview	650
11.6.1.1	Rationale for FTC Holder Rule	650
11.6.1.2	Credit-Sale Obligations Assigned to Creditor	651
11.6.1.3	Loans to Purchase Goods or Services	651
11.6.1.4	Straight Loans of Money	652
11.6.1.5	Relationship to Lender’s Direct Liability for Participation in Deception	652
11.6.1.6	Organization of This Section	652
11.6.2	Scope of the FTC Holder Rule	653
11.6.2.1	Operational Scope of the Holder Notice	653

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

11.6.2.2	Legal Scope of the Rule	653
11.6.2.2.1	Relevance of the rule's legal scope	653
11.6.2.2.2	Sales transactions covered	653
11.6.2.2.3	Coverage of leases	654
11.6.2.2.4	Covered sellers.	654
11.6.2.2.5	Rule applies to financed sale and purchase money loans.	655
11.6.2.2.6	Does the Rule apply to loans with an amount financed exceeding $25,000?	656
11.6.2.2.8	Student loans	657
11.6.3	Operation of the FTC Holder Rule.	657
11.6.3.1	Seller-Related Claims Covered by the Rule	657
11.6.3.2	Consumer's Claims Can Offset Remainder Due on the Note	658
11.6.3.3	Effect on Security Interest	659
11.6.3.4	Recovery of Amounts Already Paid	660
11.6.3.4.1	General	660
11.6.3.4.2	Recovering from a prior holder.	661
11.6.3.4.3	Is recovery of amount paid only available where consumer could rescind sale or where goods or services have no value?	661
11.6.3.4.4	Is recovery of amounts paid available only where otherwise permitted by state law?	663
11.6.3.5	Are Attorney Fees Limited by the Cap?.	663
11.6.3.6	Multiple or Punitive Damages	664
11.6.3.7	No Limit on Creditor's Liability for Own Conduct	665
11.6.3.8	Impact of Federal Statutes Limiting Creditor's Derivative Liability	665
11.6.3.8.1	TILA limits on assignee liability.	665
11.6.3.8.2	EOCA limits on assignee liability	666
11.6.3.8.3	Relation to the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act.	666
11.6.3.9	Liability of Holders of Securitized Debt.	666
11.6.3.10	Liability of FDIC, RTC, or Holders Subsequent to Them	667
11.6.3.11	Relation of FTC Rule to State Law	667
11.6.3.11.1	FTC rule overrides only less protective state laws	667
11.6.3.11.2	The LaBarre court's misinterpretation.	668
11.6.3.12	Does the FTC Holder Rule Create Federal Jurisdiction?	669
11.6.3.13	Consumer's Waiver of Claims Against the Holder	669
11.6.3.14	Holder's Refusal to Accept Liability Under FTC Holder Rule As an Independent UDAP Violation	670
11.6.4	Theories of Recovery Where FTC Holder Notice Is Improperly Omitted . .	670
11.6.4.1	General.	670
11.6.4.2	UCC Makes the Absent Holder Notice an Implied Contract Term	671
11.6.4.2.1	UCC Article 9 requires notice to be implied into the contract.	671
11.6.4.2.2	Revised Article 3 requires the Holder Notice to be implied in negotiable instruments	672
11.6.4.2.3	Case law implying the notice into the contract without the aid of the UCC	672
11.6.4.3	Creditor Who Accepts Contract or Note Without Required Holder Notice Loses UCC Protection Against Consumer's Defenses.	673
11.6.4.4	Omission of Holder Notice As UDAP Violation by Holder.	673
11.6.4.4.1	General.	673
11.6.4.4.2	Creditor's actions as a deceptive practice	673

Contents

11.6.4.4.3	Creditor's actions as an unfair practice	674
11.6.4.4.4	Are the creditor's actions within the UDAP statute's scope?	675
11.6.4.5	RICO Liability for Omitted Holder Notice	676
11.6.5	Other Theories for Holding Assignees and Lenders Liable for Seller-Related Claims and Defenses	676
11.6.5.1	Assignee of Credit Contract Is Generally Subject to Seller-Related Defenses	676
11.6.5.2	State Statute May Create Derivative Liability Independent of FTC Holder Rule	677
11.6.5.3	The Close-Connectedness Doctrine	679
11.6.5.3.1	Introduction	679
11.6.5.3.2	The basic doctrine.	680
11.6.5.3.3	Extending the doctrine.	681
11.6.5.4	HOEPA Liability	681
11.6.5.5	Liability of Credit Cards Issuers and Those Issuing Similar Devices	682
11.6.5.5.1	Introduction	682
11.6.5.5.2	When does a purchase involve a "credit card?"	682
11.6.5.5.3	Covered disputes; payment of disputed amount waives consumer rights	682
11.6.5.5.4	Three additional preconditions to asserting cardholder claims and defenses	683
11.6.5.5.5	Mechanics of raising claims with card issuer.	683
11.6.5.5.6	Challenging credit card charges under the Fair Credit Billing Act	684
11.6.5.5.7	Other theories of card issuer liability	684
11.6.5.6	Liability of Lessor for Consumer's Claims Against Dealer and Manufacturer.	684
11.6.5.6.1	Raising dealer-related claims against the lessor	684
11.6.5.6.2	Raising manufacturer-related claims against the lessor	686
11.7	Raising Lender-Related Defenses Against the Lender's Assignee	686
11.7.1	General	686
11.7.2	Does Holder-in-Due-Course Status Exist and What Defenses Does It Bar?	687
11.7.2.1	Introduction.	687
11.7.2.2	Is There a Negotiable Instrument?	687
11.7.2.2.1	Overview of requirements for negotiable instruments	687
11.7.2.2.2	Where the note is not for a fixed amount	688
11.7.2.2.3	Variable rate loans can still be (but may not be) negotiable instruments	688
11.7.2.2.4	Payable on demand or at a definite time.	688
11.7.2.2.5	Payable to bearer or to order	689
11.7.2.2.6	Unconditional promise to pay and no other undertaking	689
11.7.2.2.7	Electronic negotiable instruments	690
11.7.2.3	Is the Holder of the Instrument a Holder in Due Course?	691
11.7.2.3.1	General	691
11.7.2.3.2	The holder requirement for bearer paper.	691
11.7.2.3.3	The holder requirement for order paper; indorsements and allonges.	691
11.7.2.3.4	Value	692
11.7.2.3.5	Good faith	692
11.7.2.3.6	Without notice	693

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

11.7.2.4	Rights of Transferees from Holders in Due Course: The Shelter Rule	694
11.7.2.5	Defenses the Consumer Can Raise Even Against a Holder in Due Course	695
11.7.3	Liability of Assignees of High-Rate Mortgages	695
11.7.3.1	General.	695
11.7.3.2	Loans Covered by HOEPA	696
11.7.3.3	Exemption Where Assignee Is Unaware of HOEPA Coverage	696
11.7.3.4	State Mini-HOEPA Statutes	697
11.7.4	Special Issues Arising in Securitization Transactions	697
11.7.4.1	Introduction.	697
11.7.4.2	The Different Players in a Securitization Transaction	698
11.7.4.3	Documentation Underlying a Securitization Transaction	699
11.7.4.4	Raising Defenses on a Securitized Loan.	699
11.7.4.4.1	Who is the proper party in interest in enforcing the note?	699
11.7.4.4.2	Can the holder of a securitized debt assert the holder-in-due-course status as a defense?	699
11.7.4.4.3	Implications of multiple transfers	700
11.7.4.5	Damage Claims in Securitization Transactions Against Parties Other Than the Original Lender	700
11.7.5	Raising Lender-Related Defenses Against the FDIC, RTC, and Subsequent Note Holders	701
11.7.5.1	Introduction.	701
11.7.5.2	Three Doctrines Insulating FDIC and RTC.	701
11.7.5.3	Consumer Obligations Not Covered by the FTC Holder Rule	703
11.8	Raising Defenses to Local Telephone Company Collection of 900-Number and Long-Distance Charges.	705
11.9	UDAP Claims Against Bankrupt Sellers	706
11.10	Merchant Bonding, Insurance, and Consumer Recovery Funds	707
11.10.1	Recovering on a Bond	707
11.10.2	Recovering from the Merchant's Insurance Policy.	708
11.10.2.1	Consumer Claims Within the Merchant's Insurance Coverages	708
11.10.2.2	Is There Insurance in Place?.	710
11.10.3	Consumer Recovery Funds	710

Chapter 12

Litigating UDAP Cases

12.1	Introduction	711
12.2	Is There a Private UDAP Right of Action?	711
12.2.1	Private Right Unambiguously Exists in Every State Except Iowa	711
12.2.2	Implying a Private UDAP Right of Action in Iowa	712
12.2.3	Can Consumers Bring Actions Under UDTPA-Type Statutes?	713
12.3	Statutes of Limitations	714
12.3.1	Applicable Limitation Period	714
12.3.2	When Does the Period Start to Run?	717
12.3.2.1	Discovery Rule	717
12.3.2.2	Date of Deceptive Act vs. Date of Injury	720
12.3.2.3	Series of Events.	721
12.3.2.4	Other State Rules	722
12.3.3	Tolling	722
12.3.3.1	General.	722
12.3.3.2	Fraudulent Concealment and Estoppel	722
12.3.3.3	Pendency of Another Suit	723

Contents

12.3.4	Limitations Period Where Complaint Amended to Add New Claims or Parties	723
12.3.5	UDAP Recoupment Claims After the Limitations Period Expires	724
12.4	Retroactive Application of Statutory Provisions	724
12.5	Preconditions to Private Actions	727
12.5.1	Introduction	727
12.5.2	Damage Precondition.	727
12.5.2.1	Nature and Implications of Damage Precondition	727
12.5.2.2	Types of Damage Preconditions	728
12.5.2.3	UDAP Statutes That Explicitly Dispense with Damage Preconditions.	731
12.5.2.4	Exceptions to Damage Preconditions.	732
12.5.2.5	Must the Amount of Damage Be Proven?	732
12.5.2.6	Consumer Injuries That Satisfy the Damage Requirement.	733
12.5.2.6.1	Non-pecuniary losses	733
12.5.2.6.2	Clauses that have not been enforced	735
12.5.2.6.3	Temporary losses	735
12.5.2.6.4	Delivering product different than consumer bargained for	736
12.5.2.6.5	Bait-and-switch cases	737
12.5.2.6.6	Debts and litigation Expenses.	738
12.5.2.6.7	Other losses.	739
12.5.2.7	The Damage May Be Minimal.	740
12.5.2.8	Causation	740
12.5.2.9	Proof of Damage Precondition	742
12.5.3	Public Interest Precondition	742
12.5.3.1	Almost All States Reject a Public Interest Requirement	742
12.5.3.2	Colorado Requires a Significant Impact on the Public as Consumers	744
12.5.3.3	Georgia Intermediate Appellate Courts Require Impact on Consumer Marketplace or Potential Harm to Consumer Public	745
12.5.3.4	Minnesota Requires Private UDAP Actions to Meet a Public Interest Test	746
12.5.3.5	Nebraska Applies UDAP Statute Only to Transactions That Affect the Public Interest.	747
12.5.3.6	New York Requires That Practices Impact Consumers at Large.	748
12.5.3.7	South Carolina Requires That Practice Have Impact on Public Interest.	753
12.5.3.8	The Washington State Standard	754
12.5.3.8.1	Description of the standard.	754
12.5.3.8.2	Consumer transactions vs. private disputes and the applicable factors	755
12.5.3.8.3	Examples of transactions that meet the public interest test.	756
12.5.3.8.4	Examples of transactions that do not meet the public interest test	757
12.5.4	Notice Letters As Precondition	757
12.5.4.1	Is a Notice Letter a Precondition to a UDAP Action?	757
12.5.4.2	Are Notice Letters Required for Counterclaims and Amended UDAP Claims?	759
12.5.4.3	Can a Complaint Serve as the Notice Letter?	759
12.5.4.4	Delivery	759
12.5.4.5	To Whom Must the Notice Letter Be Sent?	760
12.5.4.6	Content of the Notice Letter	760
12.5.4.7	Notice Letters and Class Actions	762

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

12.5.4.8 Pleading Notice and Proving Notice Was Sent	762
12.5.4.9 If Notice Was Not Sent	763
12.5.4.10 Seller's Responsibilities on Receiving Notice Letter	764
12.6 Jurisdiction and Choice of Law Issues	764
12.6.1 Introduction	764
12.6.2 Jurisdiction over Out-of-State Sellers	764
12.6.2.1 Introduction.	764
12.6.2.2 Quasi-in-Rem vs. Personal Jurisdiction	765
12.6.2.3 Statutory and Constitutional Limits on Long-Arm Jurisdiction.	765
12.6.2.4 Internet Transactions.	767
12.6.2.5 Jurisdiction Over Out-of-State Individuals	768
12.6.2.6 Jurisdiction Over Co-Conspirators.	769
12.6.2.7 Burden of Proof.	769
12.6.2.8 Forum Non Conveniens	769
12.6.3 Choice of Law Issues	769
12.6.4 The Proper State Court	771
12.6.5 Federal Court Jurisdiction.	772
12.6.6 Removal Jurisdiction	773
12.6.7 Bankruptcy Court Jurisdiction.	775
12.6.8 The Enforceability of Binding Arbitration Agreements	776
12.7 Pleading and Framing UDAP Claims	778
12.7.1 Complying with Notice Letter, Public Interest, Damage, and Scope Requirements	778
12.7.2 Choosing the Plaintiff and Defendants	779
12.7.3 Framing the Nature of the Suit	780
12.7.4 Elements to Plead	780
12.7.5 Allegations Should Be Specific	782
12.7.6 Adding Non-UDAP Counts	786
12.7.7 Filing a UDAP Suit After a Collection Action and Other Res Judicata Issues	787
12.7.8 Preparing for Settlement.	788
12.8 Discovery and Factual Investigation	788
12.8.1 Starting Discovery Early	788
12.8.2 The Scope of Discovery.	788
12.8.3 Depositions	789
12.8.4 Document Requests and Admissions	789
12.8.5 Pattern Evidence and Evidence of Defendant's Wealth	789
12.8.6 Other Approaches to Obtaining Evidence	791
12.9 Trial	791
12.9.1 Evidence and Proof Issues	791
12.9.1.1 Standard of Proof.	791
12.9.1.2 Other Bad Acts	792
12.9.1.3 Expert Testimony	793
12.9.1.4 Other Evidence Issues.	794
12.9.2 Trial Before a Judge or Jury	794
12.9.2.1 Strategic Considerations	794
12.9.2.2 Is a Jury Trial Available for UDAP Claims?.	794
12.9.2.3 Questions of Law vs. Questions of Fact.	796
12.9.2.4 Voir Dire , Opening and Closing Arguments, Jury Instructions, and Trial Strategy.	797
12.10 Constitutional Issues.	798
12.10.1 Introduction	798
12.10.2 The First Amendment	798
12.10.2.1 Deceptive Commercial Speech	798
12.10.2.2 Unfair Commercial Speech	799

Contents

12.10.2.3 Determining Whether Speech Is Commercial or Political 801
12.10.2.4 Attempts to Restrict Sale of Course Materials or Other
Publications 802
12.10.2.5 First Amendment Issues in Defamation Claims by Dealers 802
12.10.3 Vagueness 803
12.10.4 Constitutionality of UDAP Remedies and Procedures 804
12.10.5 Other Constitutional Challenges 805

Chapter 13

Private UDAP Remedies

13.1 Nature and Liberal Interpretation of UDAP Remedies 807
13.2 Is There a Private UDAP Damages Remedy? 808
13.2.1 General; Uniform Deceptive Trade Practices Act Remedies 808
13.2.2 California UDAP Remedies 808
13.2.3 Remedy Issues in Maine, Minnesota, and New York 810
13.3 Calculating Actual Damages 810
13.3.1 Introduction 810
13.3.2 Direct Actual Damages 810
13.3.2.1 How Are Direct Damages Calculated: Out of Pocket, Loss of Bargain, or Cost to Repair? 810
13.3.2.2 Loss-of-Bargain Damages 811
13.3.2.3 Cost-to-Repair Damages 813
13.3.2.4 Out-of-Pocket Damages or Restitution 813
13.3.2.4.1 General 813
13.3.2.4.2 Need the court deduct the value of the product from the restitution amount? 815
13.3.2.4.3 Restitution where consumers cannot be located 815
13.3.3 Consequential Damages 816
13.3.3.1 General 816
13.3.3.2 Standards to Prove Consequential Damages 816
13.3.3.3 Financing Costs As Consequential Damages 817
13.3.3.4 Consequential Damages Based on Consumer's Lost Time or Earnings 817
13.3.3.5 Lost Use of a Product or Service 818
13.3.3.6 Injury to Credit Rating 818
13.3.3.7 Attorney Fees as Consequential Damages 818
13.3.3.8 Physical Injuries 819
13.3.3.9 Pain and Suffering; Mental Anguish 820
13.3.3.9.1 General 820
13.3.3.9.2 States where UDAP pain and suffering damages are never recoverable 820
13.3.3.9.3 Pain and suffering damages generally recoverable
where there is physical injury 820
13.3.3.9.4 Pain and suffering damages recoverable where deception intentional or grossly negligent 820
13.3.3.9.5 Modern standards may be even more liberal 821
13.3.3.9.6 Is mere aggravation enough? 822
13.3.4 Prejudgment Interest 822
13.3.5 Proving Actual Damages and Causation 823
13.3.5.1 General Standards 823
13.3.5.2 Damages and Causation in Bait-and-Switch Cases 825
13.3.6 Contractual Limitations on Damages 826
13.3.7 Collateral Source Rule 826
13.3.8 Mitigation of Damages 826
13.3.9 Interrelation of UDAP Actual Damages and Damages on Other Claims 826

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

13.4	Statutory, Multiple, and Punitive Damages	827
13.4.1	Statutory Minimum Damages	827
13.4.1.1	General.	827
13.4.1.2	Statutory Damages for Multiple Claims or Multiple Plaintiffs . . .	828
13.4.1.3	Should Statutory Damages Be Trebled?.	828
13.4.1.4	Interrelationship Between Statutory Damages and Other Awards . .	828
13.4.2	Multiple Damages.	829
13.4.2.1	General.	829
13.4.2.2	Are Multiple Damages Mandatory?.	830
13.4.2.3	Limits on Treble Damages Award.	831
13.4.2.3.1	Intent or knowledge preconditions.	831
13.4.2.3.2	Bad faith refusal to settle as precondition.	832
13.4.2.3.3	Other preconditions to multiple damage awards.	832
13.4.2.3.4	Standards where multiple damages are discretionary . .	834
13.4.2.3.5	Statutory standards as to the multiplier to be utilized . .	834
13.4.2.4	Are Multiple Damages Available in Default Judgments?	834
13.4.2.5	Arbitration and Multiple Damages	835
13.4.2.5.1	Can UDAP multiple damages claims be forced into arbitration?	835
13.4.2.5.2	Does an arbitrator have authority to award multiple damages?	835
13.4.2.6	Interrelation of Treble Damages with Other Awards.	836
13.4.2.7	How to Calculate Multiple Damages	838
13.4.2.7.1	Relationship to seller's recovery in the same case	838
13.4.2.7.2	Relationship to settlement with other defendant in the same case or defendant's payments before judgment . .	839
13.4.2.7.3	What awards should be trebled?	839
13.4.2.7.4	Emotional distress damages	840
13.4.2.7.5	Should the amount of a cancelled or rescinded debt be trebled?.	840
13.4.2.7.6	Prejudgment and post-judgment interest; other financing costs	840
13.4.2.8	Should the Jury Be Told That Actual Damages Will Be Trebled?	841
13.4.2.9	Parties Liable for Treble Damages	843
13.4.3	Punitive Damages	843
13.4.3.1	Are Punitive Damages Available Under a UDAP Statute?	843
13.4.3.2	Common Law Fraud Punitive Damages Where UDAP Punitive Damages Not Available.	844
13.4.3.3	Standards for Determining Whether UDAP Punitive Damages Should Be Awarded	845
13.4.3.4	Need Consumer Prove Actual Damages?	846
13.4.3.5	Arbitration and Punitive Damages.	846
13.4.3.6	Limits on the Amount of Punitive Damages	847
13.4.3.6.1	Constitutional limitations enunciated by the United States Supreme Court	847
13.4.3.6.2	State statutory caps on punitive damages awards	849
13.4.3.6.3	Potential of multiple punitive damages awards against one defendant	850
13.4.3.7	Who Is Liable for Punitive Damages?	850
13.4.3.8	Interrelation of Punitive Damages with Other Remedies	851
13.5	Class Actions	852
13.5.1	General	852
13.5.2	UDAP Class Action Procedures	853
13.5.3	UDAP Class Actions Where Individual Damage Is Minimal	854

Contents

13.5.4 Proving That a UDAP Violation Is Common to the Class	854
13.5.4.1 Comparison of UDAP and Fraud Class Actions	854
13.5.4.2 Showing a Common Deceptive Practice.	855
13.5.4.2.1 General	855
13.5.4.2.2 Mass advertising.	855
13.5.4.2.3 Standardized sales presentations	855
13.5.4.2.4 Common problems with the product itself	856
13.5.4.2.5 Common excess charges	856
13.5.4.2.6 Standard form contract provisions	856
13.5.4.2.7 Standardized collection practices.	857
13.5.4.2.8 Common failure to disclose a material fact.	857
13.5.4.2.9 Do class issues predominate?	857
13.5.4.2.10 Is the class action superior?	859
13.5.5 Multi-State Class Actions.	859
13.5.6 “Picking Off” Named Plaintiffs	861
13.5.7 Statutory Damages for Each Class Member.	861
13.5.8 Settlements	861
13.5.9 Arbitration and Class Actions	862
13.6 Injunctions and Other Equitable Relief	862
13.6.1 Advantages of the Injunctive Remedy	862
13.6.2 Does a UDAP Statute Authorize Private Injunctive Relief?	862
13.6.2.1 Statutes That Explicitly Authorize Private Injunctive Relief	862
13.6.2.2 Implying an Injunctive Remedy in Other States	863
13.6.3 Preconditions for Private Injunctive Relief	864
13.6.3.1 Must the Plaintiff Be Injured?	864
13.6.3.2 Must the Plaintiff Benefit from the Injunction?	865
13.6.3.3 Adequate Remedy at Law and Other Impediments to Injunctive Relief.	866
13.6.4 Relationship of Injunctive Remedy to Arbitration Clause.	866
13.6.5 Other Equitable Relief	867
13.7 Voiding and Rescinding Contracts	867
13.7.1 Introduction	867
13.7.2 Statutory Language Authorizing Remedy	867
13.7.3 Where Statute Is Silent As to Availability of Remedy.	868
13.7.4 Procedures to Rescind Contract.	869
13.7.5 Relationship of Rescission to Other UDAP Remedies.	869
13.8 Attorney Fees	870
13.8.1 Purpose of UDAP Attorney Fee Provisions.	870
13.8.2 When Are UDAP Attorney Fees Available?	871
13.8.2.1 Statutory Preconditions to Attorney Fee Award.	871
13.8.2.2 Where No Explicit Statutory Authority for Fees	873
13.8.2.3 Availability of Other Remedies Does Not Limit Access to Fees	873
13.8.3 Are Attorney Fees Mandatory?	873
13.8.4 When Does a Consumer Prevail, Triggering UDAP Attorney Fees?	875
13.8.4.1 Must the Consumer Prove UDAP Damages?	875
13.8.4.2 Must the Consumer’s Recovery Exceed the Creditor’s?	876
13.8.4.3 Multiple Claims, Parties, or Trials.	877
13.8.4.4 Attorney Fees for Work on Default Judgments and Protecting a Judgment	878
13.8.4.5 Settlements	878
13.8.4.5.1 Are fees available after settlement?	878
13.8.4.5.2 Can a seller ask the consumer to waive fees in a settlement?	879
13.8.4.5.3 Preserving a fee claim when settling a case	879

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

13.8.4.6 Collateral Proceedings, Including Proceedings Relating to the Fee Award	880
13.8.5 Attorney Fees in Arbitration Proceedings	881
13.8.5.1 Where Arbitration Restricts Prevailing Consumer’s Right to Fees . .	881
13.8.5.2 Where Arbitrator with Authority to Do So Fails to Award Fees to Prevailing Consumer.	882
13.8.5.3 Where Arbitration Agreement Provides Consumer Must Pay Prevailing Defendants’ Fees.	882
13.8.6 Attorney Fees for Appellate Work	882
13.8.6.1 When Are Such Fees Awarded?	882
13.8.6.2 Who Determines Appellate Attorney Fees?	883
13.8.7 Types of Representation Entitled to Fees	884
13.8.7.1 Attorney Fees for Legal Services and Other Public Interest Attorneys	884
13.8.7.2 Paralegals and Law Clerks.	885
13.8.7.3 Expert Witnesses	885
13.8.7.4 Pro Se Representation.	885
13.8.8 Who Receives the Fees?	886
13.8.9 Who Is Liable for Attorney Fees?	886
13.8.10 Attorney Fees for Prevailing Sellers	886
13.8.10.1 Introduction.	886
13.8.10.2 Has the Seller Prevailed?.	887
13.8.10.3 Tougher Standard for Sellers’ Fees Where Award Is Discretionary for Either Party.	887
13.8.10.4 Where a UDAP Statute Explicitly Limits Fees to Frivolous or Bad Faith Actions.	888
13.8.10.4.1 Importance of the exact statutory language	888
13.8.10.4.2 Meaning of “for purposes of harassment”	889
13.8.10.4.3 Meaning of “bad faith”	889
13.8.10.4.4 Meaning of “groundless”	889
13.8.10.4.5 Meaning of “frivolous”	890
13.8.10.4.6 Procedural issues	890
13.8.10.5 Authority for Seller’s Attorney Fees Where No Explicit Authorization in UDAP Statute.	891
13.8.11 How Attorney Fees Are Calculated	891
13.8.11.1 Why UDAP Attorney Fee Awards Must Be Adequate	891
13.8.11.2 Examples of Significant UDAP Attorney Fee Awards.	894
13.8.11.3 Factors Used to Calculate Fees	895
13.8.11.3.1 Standards vary by state	895
13.8.11.3.2 The lodestar formula	902
13.8.11.3.3 Fees calculated based on contingency fee agreement . .	904
13.8.11.4 Awards for Work on Non-UDAP Counts and on Unsuccessful UDAP Counts	905
13.8.11.5 Calculating Fees for Public Interest Attorneys.	907
13.8.11.6 Fees for Paralegals, Law Clerks	908
13.8.11.7 Out-of-Pocket Expenses.	908
13.8.11.8 Effect of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 68 and Similar State Rules	908
13.8.12 Judicial Procedure for Seeking Attorney Fees	909
13.8.12.1 Pleading and Documentation Required for a Fee Award	909
13.8.12.2 The Consumer’s Burden of Proof	909
13.8.12.3 Timing of the Fee Petition	910
13.8.12.4 Who Makes the Fee Determination?	910
13.8.12.5 Procedure for Appellate Fees	911
13.8.13 Tips on Handling Attorney Fee Hearings.	911

Other Private Remedies

14.1	No Private Remedy Under the FTC Act	913
14.2	The Federal Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO)	914
14.2.1	Overview	914
14.2.1.1	The Structure of RICO	914
14.2.1.2	Advantages and Disadvantages of RICO Claims	914
14.2.1.3	Scope and Relation to Other Statutes	915
14.2.1.3.1	Interstate or foreign commerce	915
14.2.1.3.2	Covered defendants	915
14.2.1.3.3	Displacement by other statutes	916
14.2.1.4	Liberal Construction	916
14.2.2	Pattern of Racketeering Activity or Collection of an Unlawful Debt	918
14.2.2.1	Introduction	918
14.2.2.2	Collection of an Unlawful Debt	918
14.2.2.3	Racketeering Activity	919
14.2.2.3.1	General	919
14.2.2.3.2	Elements of mail fraud	919
14.2.2.3.3	Mail fraud’s mailing requirement	921
14.2.2.3.4	Aiding and abetting mail fraud	922
14.2.2.3.5	Wire fraud	922
14.2.2.4	“Pattern” of Racketeering Activity	922
14.2.2.4.1	Introduction	922
14.2.2.4.2	Supreme Court guidance	922
14.2.2.4.3	Closed-ended continuity	923
14.2.2.4.4	Open-ended continuity	924
14.2.2.4.5	Relationship aspect of pattern	927
14.2.2.4.6	Factors facilitating proof of a pattern	928
14.2.3	The “Enterprise”	928
14.2.3.1	General	928
14.2.3.2	Entities Making Up an “Association in Fact”	928
14.2.3.3	Level of Association Necessary for an Association in Fact	929
14.2.3.3.1	Introduction	929
14.2.3.3.2	The decision-making framework	929
14.2.3.3.3	A continuing unit	931
14.2.3.3.4	Relation of enterprise to the racketeering activity	931
14.2.3.4	Enterprise Must Be Distinct from Defendant for § 1962(c) Claims	932
14.2.3.4.1	General	932
14.2.3.4.2	The defendant-employees enterprise	933
14.2.3.4.3	The defendant-employer enterprise	933
14.2.3.4.4	The defendant-parent corporation enterprise	934
14.2.3.4.5	The defendant-subsidary enterprise	935
14.2.3.5	Subsections 1962(a), (b), and (d) Generally Do Not Require a Distinct Enterprise	935
14.2.3.6	Strategies to Find the Corporation Liable	936
14.2.3.6.1	Introduction	936
14.2.3.6.2	Respondeat superior	936
14.2.3.6.3	Indemnification and insurance	938
14.2.3.6.4	Aiding and abetting	938
14.2.4	Enterprise’s Relationship to the Predicate Offenses	939
14.2.4.1	Proceeds of Illegal Conduct Invested in the Enterprise: § 1962(a)	939
14.2.4.2	Acquiring an Interest in Enterprise Through Illegal Conduct: § 1962(b)	940

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

14.2.4.3	Participation in Enterprise Through Illegal Conduct: § 1962(c) . . .	940
14.2.4.4	Conspiracy: § 1962(d)	943
14.2.5	Required Injury	945
14.2.5.1	General.	945
14.2.5.2	Injury from Predicate Offense’s Relationship to the Enterprise. . .	945
14.2.5.2.1	Injury under § 1962(a)	945
14.2.5.2.2	Injury under § 1962(b)	946
14.2.5.2.3	Injury under § 1962(c)	946
14.2.5.2.4	Injury under § 1962(d)	947
14.2.5.3	Proximate Cause	947
14.2.5.4	Type of Injury Authorizing a RICO Claim	949
14.2.5.5	Indirect Injury to Third Parties	950
14.2.5.6	Is the Injury Concrete and Ripe?	951
14.2.6	Pleading	952
14.2.6.1	Local Requirements for Case Statements	952
14.2.6.2	Pleading Fraud—Rule 9(b)’s Particularity Requirement	952
14.2.6.3	Avoiding Rule 11 Claims	956
14.2.7	Litigation.	958
14.2.7.1	Service of Process, Venue, and Jurisdiction	958
14.2.7.2	RICO Statute of Limitations	959
14.2.7.3	Preserving Assets	961
14.2.7.4	RICO Standard of Proof	961
14.2.7.5	Offensive Collateral Estoppel	962
14.2.7.6	Defensive Collateral estoppel	963
14.2.8	Private Remedies	963
14.2.8.1	Actual Damages.	963
14.2.8.2	Treble and Punitive Damages.	964
14.2.8.3	Attorney Fees and Costs	964
14.2.8.4	Pre-Judgment Interest	965
14.2.8.5	Injunctive and Other Equitable Relief	965
14.2.9	RICO Consumer Cases in the Courts	966
14.2.9.1	Examples of Successful Consumer RICO Cases	966
14.2.9.1.1	Mortgage lending	966
14.2.9.1.2	Predatory non-mortgage lending and rent to own.	967
14.2.9.1.3	Auto financing, leasing, and repossessions	968
14.2.9.1.4	Land sales, retirement communities, and nursing homes.	968
14.2.9.1.5	Trade schools.	969
14.2.9.1.6	Insurance, annuities.	969
14.2.9.1.7	Miscellaneous	969
14.2.9.2	Examples of Unsuccessful Consumer RICO Cases	970
14.3	State RICO Statutes	971
14.3.1	Overview of State RICO Statutes	971
14.3.1.1	State RICO Statutes Described.	971
14.3.1.2	Strategic Advantages of State RICO Statutes As Compared to Federal RICO	973
14.3.1.3	Strategic Advantages of State RICO Laws As Compared to UDAP Statutes	973
14.3.2	Predicate Offenses.	974
14.3.3	Pattern Requirements.	975
14.3.4	Enterprise Requirements.	976
14.3.5	Timing of Offenses and Statute of Limitations.	977
14.3.6	Jurisdictional and Procedural Issues	978
14.3.7	Private Remedies Under State RICO Statutes	979
14.3.8	Application of State RICO Statutes to Consumer Fraud	980

Contents

14.4 State Civil Theft Laws 980

14.5 Federal False Claims Act 981

 14.5.1 Overview 981

 14.5.2 Advantages of a False Claims Act Claim 981

 14.5.3 Features of the False Claims Act 982

 14.5.4 Who May File a False Claims Act Case 983

 14.5.5 Procedure Under the False Claims Act 983

 14.5.6 Examples of False Claims Act Cases 984

 14.5.7 FCA Checklist 985

14.6 Unjust Enrichment, Restitution, and Similar Equitable Theories 985

 14.6.1 Unjust Enrichment 985

 14.6.2 Money Had and Received 987

 14.6.3 Constructive Trust 987

 14.6.4 Obstacles to Equitable Remedies 988

 14.6.4.1 Requirement of No Adequate Remedy at Law 988

 14.6.4.2 Existence of an Express Contract 989

 14.6.4.3 The Voluntary Payment Defense 990

Chapter 15

State Agency Enforcement

15.1 Introduction 993

15.2 Civil Investigative Demands, Subpoenas, and Other Investigative Issues 993

 15.2.1 Introduction 993

 15.2.2 When Can the State Initiate an Investigation? 993

 15.2.3 Standards of Review for Compulsory Process 994

 15.2.4 Constitutional Issues 996

 15.2.4.1 Due Process 996

 15.2.4.2 Self-Incrimination 996

 15.2.4.3 Unreasonable Search and Seizure 997

 15.2.4.4 The First Amendment 998

 15.2.5 Preconditions 998

 15.2.5.1 Reasonable Cause 998

 15.2.5.2 Other Preconditions 999

 15.2.6 Defects on the Face of a Subpoena 999

 15.2.7 Trade Secrets, Confidential Information 1000

 15.2.8 Different Forms of Discovery Distinguished 1001

 15.2.9 Test Purchases 1001

 15.2.10 Access to FTC Investigational Records 1002

 15.2.11 Respondent’s Discovery of the State’s Case 1002

15.3 Practices and Respondents Subject to State Enforcement Actions 1003

 15.3.1 Introduction 1003

 15.3.2 Special UDAP Scope Issues for State Enforcement Actions 1003

 15.3.3 Special Deception Standards for State Enforcement 1004

 15.3.4 Special Standards for Unfairness, Unconscionability, Unsubstantiated
 Claims 1004

 15.3.5 Persons Liable in State Enforcement Actions 1005

15.4 Challenges to State Enforcement Actions 1005

 15.4.1 Must the State First Offer Voluntary Compliance or Notify the Respondent? 1005

 15.4.2 Need The Enforcing Authority Have Reason to Believe the Act Has Been Violated? 1006

 15.4.3 Do Preconditions to Private Actions Apply? 1006

 15.4.4 The State Can Sue on Behalf of Consumers Who Do Not Have the Right to Sue 1007

 15.4.5 Selective Enforcement and the “Everyone Does It” Defense 1008

Unfair and Deceptive Acts and Practices

15.4.6	Can the State Proceed Administratively?	1008
15.4.7	Removal to Federal Court.	1009
15.4.8	The Statute of Limitations	1009
15.4.9	Pre-Trial Disclosures by the State Enforcement Authority	1009
15.4.10	The Respondent's Counter Suit or Calling Attorney General Staff as Witnesses	1010
15.4.11	The Respondent's Claim of a Right to Court-Appointed Counsel.	1010
15.5	Enforcement Remedies	1011
15.5.1	Cease and Desist Orders, Injunctions	1011
15.5.1.1	Introduction.	1011
15.5.1.2	Mootness.	1011
15.5.1.3	Preliminary Injunctions	1011
15.5.1.4	Preconditions to an Injunctive Order	1012
15.5.1.5	Breadth of the Order.	1013
15.5.1.5.1	General considerations	1013
15.5.1.5.2	First Amendment considerations	1013
15.5.1.5.3	Can an injunction prevent a business from operating?	1014
15.5.1.5.4	Special statutory limitations to injunctive remedy.	1015
15.5.1.6	Innovative Orders.	1015
15.5.1.7	Who Should Be Named in an Injunctive Order	1016
15.5.1.8	Effect of Bankruptcy Stay on Injunction.	1017
15.5.1.9	Judicial Modification of Consent Decrees.	1017
15.5.1.10	Public Disclosure of Consent Agreements.	1017
15.5.2	Violations of Cease and Desist Orders, Injunctions, Assurances of Voluntary Compliance	1017
15.5.2.1	Standard of Proof; Right to Jury Trial	1017
15.5.2.2	Violations of Assurances of Voluntary Compliance	1018
15.5.2.3	Who Must Comply with the Injunction and Has the Injunction Been Violated?.	1018
15.5.2.4	Size of Penalty for Violations.	1018
15.5.3	Civil Penalties for Initial Violations	1019
15.5.3.1	Procedures for Imposing Civil Penalties.	1019
15.5.3.2	Constitutional Challenges to Civil Penalties	1020
15.5.3.3	Criteria for Civil Penalties	1020
15.5.3.4	Factors for Determining Amount of Civil Penalties	1021
15.5.3.5	Multiple Civil Penalties.	1021
15.5.3.6	Enhanced Penalties Where State of Emergency or Victim Is Elder or Disabled	1023
15.5.3.7	Indemnification and Insurance Not Available to Pay Civil Penalties	1023
15.5.3.8	Civil Penalties in Bankruptcy	1023
15.5.4	Restitution	1023
15.5.4.1	State Authority to Seek Restitution	1023
15.5.4.2	Which Consumers Can Benefit from a Restitution Order?	1025
15.5.4.3	Payments to Entities Other Than Victimized Consumers.	1025
15.5.4.4	Who Is Liable for a Restitution Order?	1026
15.5.4.5	Determining the Restitution Amount	1026
15.5.4.6	Types of Restitution Relief Available.	1027
15.5.4.7	Where Respondent Files Bankruptcy or Fails to Pay Ordered Restitution.	1028
15.5.4.7.1	Restitution Where Seller Files for Bankruptcy	1028
15.5.4.7.2	Other approaches to insure payment of restitution obligation	1028
15.5.4.8	Relation of Restitution to Other Remedies	1029
15.5.4.9	Restitution's Relation to Private Suits	1029

Contents

	15.5.5 Asset Attachment Orders	1030
	15.5.6 Receivership.	1030
	15.5.7 Attorney Fees and Other Litigation Costs for the State and for the Respondent	1031
Appendix A	Statute-By-Statute Analysis of State UDAP Statutes	1033
Appendix B	Selected Federal Trade Commission Rules
	B.1 FTC Credit Practices Rule	1055
	B.2 FTC Rule Concerning Preservation of Consumers’ Claims and Defenses.	1056
	B.2.1 The Rule.	1056
	B.2.2 FTC Staff Letters	1058
	B.3 FTC Rule Concerning Cooling-Off Period For Sales Made at Homes or at Certain Other Locations	1061
	B.4 FTC Mail or Telephone Order Merchandise Rule.	1062
	B.5 FTC Funeral Industry Practices Rule	1064
	B.6 FTC Used Car Rule	1068
Appendix C	Federal and State RICO Statutes
	C.1 Federal RICO Statutes	1075
	C.1.1 Full Text of Federal RICO Statute.	1075
	C.1.2 Federal Wire and Mail Fraud Statutes	1081
	C.2 Statute-by-Statute Analysis of State RICO Statutes.	1081
Appendix D	Federal Telemarketing Statutes and Regulations
	D.1 Federal Telemarketing Statutes	1087
	D.1.1 Telemarketing and Consumer Fraud and Abuse Prevention—15 U.S.C. §§ 6101–6108	1087
	D.1.2 Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution—15 U.S.C. § 5711	1090
	D.1.3 Restrictions on Use of Telephone Equipment—47 U.S.C. § 227	1091
	D.1.4 Regulation of Carrier Offering of Pay-Per-Call Services—47 U.S.C. § 228	1096
	D.2 Federal Telemarketing Rules and Regulations	1100
	D.2.1 Telemarketing Sales Rule—16 C.F.R. § 310	1100
	D.2.2 Telephone Disclosure and Dispute Resolution Rule—16 C.F.R. § 308	1105
	D.2.3 Restrictions on Telephone Solicitation—47 C.F.R. § 64.1200.	1111
Appendix E	State Telemarketing and State “900-Number” Statutes Summarized	1115
Appendix F	Useful Websites	1139
	Index	1141
	Quick Reference to Consumer Credit and Sales Legal Practice Series	1205

